

Meet George Pontillas Ramos

George is from the beautiful island of Luzon, Philippines. In 1992 he worked as an accountant in Saipan, Mariana Islands (CNMI). Prompted to look for a better opportunity, he migrated to Chicago, Illinois and worked as a graphic designer. After five years in Chicago, he later decided to move to San Francisco and then to San Diego in California. After four years in California, George and his family decided to migrate to Arizona, changed career from graphics designer to mortgage consultant and also became an insurance and real estate agent. Currently he is also connected to big real estate companies in Manila as a real estate agent here in the United States.

George has a Business Administration degree from San Sebastian College, Philippines. He served in the Philippine Military and worked as an accountant in the US Naval Facility, Subic Bay.

As an insurance agent and a real estate person and a mortgage consultant in Arizona, George provides excellent customer service. He believes that working closely and building a good relationship with his client will enable him to provide the best possible service to them.
